

GOLDRING JEWISH SUMMER CAMP EXPERIENCE

2010 INFORMATION & APPLICATION

Send your child to camp this summer through an exciting program underwritten by the Goldring Family Foundation and administered by the Jewish Endowment Foundation of Louisiana. Experts agree that one of the most effective ways to develop children's commitment to living Jewish lives is to expose them to a Jewish sleep-away camp experience. Your children will meet other Jewish boys and girls and savor the precious heritage of Jewish traditions while enjoying wholesome summer fun and sports activities.

The Goldring Family Foundation wants to make this lifetime experience available to every Jewish child. Each of your children is eligible for a one-time-only incentive grant of up to $1,000* to attend a non-profit Jewish summer camp. To meet the criteria for JEF funding, children must be:

- First-time campers at a non-profit Jewish sleep-away camp like those named below. If your child's camp is not on the approved list, it must provide JEF with proof of its non-profit status;
- Currently in grades 1 through 9;
- Residents of Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama or northwest Florida.

Grants are not based on financial need. Both parents need not be Jewish. Temple or synagogue affiliation is not required.

Interested? Complete the attached form and mail by March 31, 2010 to: Goldring Jewish Summer Camp Experience, c/o Jewish Endowment Foundation of Louisiana, 615 Baronne Street, Suite 150, New Orleans, LA 70113 or fax to (504) 524-4259. Limited funds are available, so please apply early. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis but must be postmarked by March 31. Award notification will be by May 31, 2010.

*Programs costing less than $1,000 will be funded up the amount of camp tuition.
