

JEWISH ENDOWMENT FOUNDATION OF LOUISIANA

Annual Report 2015

FUNDING FOR OUR FUTURE

In this Annual Report, we are featuring quotations from signers of JEF's Book of Life from several years ago. When donors create a Jewish legacy, they can inscribe a personal message to future generations in the Book of Life, briefly telling their family stories and expressing their thoughts about tzedakah. We are inspired by these statements.

"As my ancestors planted for me before I was born, so do I plant for those who will come after me."

– Talmud Ta'anit

The Jewish Endowment Foundation of Louisiana:
Preserves the past, supports the present, and secures the future of our Jewish Community.

A YEAR IN REVIEW

At the end of each year, we look back at the progress we have made in accomplishing our mission of sustaining our Jewish community now and for the future.

As we go to press, our foundation has almost $50 million in total assets under administration. Our General (Unrestricted) Fund is approaching $3.7 million. In 2014 and thus far in 2015, we have granted $120,650 from our General Fund. Our donors, through donor advised, designated, and custodial funds and supporting foundations, granted more than $3.5 million last year – the largest amount ever. Our Jewish community continues to be a leader in philanthropy in the Greater New Orleans area.

With your support and our prudent management, we are facing the future with sustained fiscal responsibility. We are grateful to each of you who has contributed to and partnered with JEF for your confidence and contributions. You are securing the future of our community.

The following funds have been opened since our last Annual Report through November 1, 2015: Donor Advised: Phyllis and Jack Allmont, Court 13 Arts, Albert and Pearl Daube #1, Albert and Pearl Daube #2, Richard and Ina Davis, Greg Friedler for Creative Expression, Louis and Lillian Glazer Family, Bella Goldman Memorial, JFGNO Allocations Endowment, JoAnn and Larry Katz, NGCF, Roswell J. Weil Memorial; Designated: Byrde B. Haspel Make-A-Wish Foundation, Byrde B. Haspel NCJW, Byrde B. Haspel United Way, Maury A. Herman JFGNO, Harold Wainer; Custodial: Touro Synagogue Hunger, Charles Zucker; B'nai Maimonides: Emma Stotter Benjamin, Kaitlin L. Gelman; Young Philanthropist: Daniel Jacob Wise; Supporting Foundation: Charles D. Zucker; Insurance: Joshua L. Rubenstein.

This year we have received very generous donations from community members who have passed away. They supported our Jewish community during their lifetimes and now, through their legacies, in perpetuity. We are most grateful to Charlie Zucker, Babs and J.E. Isaacson, Al Daube, and an anonymous donor.

In this Annual Report, we are featuring a few community benefactors who have created Jewish legacies and signed JEF's Book of Life. Quotations from their Book of Life statements will be found throughout this report.

You, too, can be a benefactor and share your thoughts in our Book of Life. Your generosity and support can live on. By creating your Jewish legacy, you can help assure that our Jewish community remains strong for future generations.

Each of us has an opportunity to make a difference. If you have not given to JEF before, please consider doing so now. There is no gift that is too small; any donation will contribute to the safekeeping of our Jewish community. You can remember a special occasion or a loved one or just support JEF with a donation to the General Fund in the enclosed envelope.

In a world filled with turmoil and uncertainty, securing our future is critically important. Be a part of JEF today and tomorrow. Please call your professional advisor, or call Sandy Levy or Patti Lengsfeld at JEF at 504-524-4559 to help you take advantage of this tax-wise giving opportunity.

With best wishes for a happy and healthy 2016,

TZEDAKAH AWARD

Beverly and Lester Wainer

are generous, caring, and modest philanthropists; devoted to their family, their synagogue and the New Orleans Jewish community, with a strong commitment to Judaism and Jewish values.

Beverly and Lester met in September 1955 in the Fountain Lounge in the Roosevelt Hotel, each with another date. The following May, Beverly was in New Orleans and they reconnected. They married in Beverly's home town of Atlanta in September 1956 and have lived "happily ever after" for 59 years. They consider themselves two of the most fortunate people in the world.

As a married couple, Beverly and Lester immediately became involved in the Jewish community. They have served on synagogue and youth group boards, Willow Wood, B'nai B'rith and JEF boards. Beverly was co-chair of the Touro Hospital Gift Shop and both were involved with the Jewish Welfare Fund. Lester was one of three men from New Orleans invited to Israel to meet with Golda Meir, although he was unable to go.

Beverly and Lester opened a donor advised fund at JEF in 1986. In 2011 they donated that fund to JEF's General Fund. They also made a donation to fund the Visiting Professor of Jewish Studies Program at Loyola University in JEF's name. They opened another donor advised fund in 2012. Beverly has also endowed her Lion of Judah at JEF and is a member of JEF's Board of Directors.

Beverly and Lester, their children and grandchildren have set an example of tzedekah and leadership for our Jewish community. The entire Wainer family have been and continue to be outstanding, quiet philanthropists. In the truest sense of charitable giving, they have shared their good fortune and enriched our Jewish community.

"We have had a wonderful, fortunate life. It's a blessing for us to be able to give back and JEF is the perfect partner for our philanthropy."

Beverly and Lester Wainer

YOUNG FAMILY AWARD FOR PROFESSIONAL EXCELLENCE

"I have been fortunate to work with clients to create plans to fulfill their philanthropic goals. It was very rewarding to be able to assist Charlie Zucker in creating a Jewish legacy at JEF, where he knew his gift would be safeguarded and wisely used."

David Kushner

"Over the past several years I have had the good fortune of working with JEF on personal and professional levels. My family has established a Donor Advised Fund. JEF provides a wonderful service to the Jewish community and a solid base for those who have charitable goals both during life and in their wills."

Mark Stein

ENDOWMENT ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

"Creating a Jewish Legacy fund through JEF allows me to provide financial support for the future of our Jewish community. My family and I have been the beneficiaries of those who came before us; it is time for us to continue this generational chain: L'dor v'dor."

Mike Wasserman

... my parents... and my grandparents... gifted me with love, devotion, and a Jewish education. They taught by example: work hard, share everything, and leave the world more repaired than it was previously. Through the donor advised fund that bears their names, the work they began will endure for generations to come.

Our families have lived in this wonderful country for years; we are fortunate to be members of the fourth generation. We strive to live as our ancestors have taught us: "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you."

Tzedakah is a heritage and privilege of sharing the many blessings of our lifetime with our Jewish Community. Our parents taught us love and devotion for Judaism and Israel. We hope that this commitment will serve to instill in our children, grandchildren, and their children the same spiritual guidance that has blessed us with good health, happiness and peace.

WAYS TO GIVE

Join our ever-growing list of Jewish Endowment Foundation donors. We live on in the acts of goodness we perform. By choosing to support your community through the Jewish Endowment Foundation of Louisiana, you become one in spirit with past generations whose generous gifts are today's legacy.

UNRESTRICTED GIFTS

The most flexible form of giving is the unrestricted gift. This permits JEF's Board of Directors to use its discretion to meet the most pressing needs of the day. Donors enjoy the firm assurance that their contributions will be used wisely in the face of ever-changing present and future demands.

BEQUESTS

You can add a simple codicil to your will to include a bequest to JEF's General Fund. We recommend that you consult your professional advisor before making any changes or additions to your will.

UNRESTRICTED NAMED FUNDS

Income from the fund is used to support JEF and provide community grants. You can name this fund to honor or memorialize a loved one.

DONOR ADVISED FUND

You can establish a donor advised fund to be maintained as a component fund of JEF with a gift of money or property. You have the privilege of naming the fund and recommending distributions to qualified charities over time. A donor advised fund can be established with as little as $500 and distributions can be made once the fund reaches $10,000.

DESIGNATED FUND

A designated fund specifies that all or part of the income earned by the fund be used for a specific agency, purpose, or field of interest. A designated fund may be established in any name you choose.

CUSTODIAL FUND

An Agency Custodial Fund allows distributions to be made from the initial investment and earnings at any time. JEF holds and invests the funds with our other funds according to the agency's investment choice. The non-profit agency owns the money – JEF is only the custodian. JEF and the agency may revoke this contract with a 10-day notice and the funds will be returned to the agency within 14 days.

CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITY

A charitable gift annuity (CGA) transfers cash, stock, or other assets to JEF and in return, the annuitant receives certain tax benefits and regular payments for life. Payments vary depending upon the annuitant's age. A CGA can be purchased for an individual or a couple. Rates are available upon request.

CHARITABLE LEAD TRUST

A charitable lead trust allows you to contribute to JEF while retaining assets for yourself or transferring them to others. Trust income is paid to JEF for a period of years determined when you establish the trust. After that time, the principal reverts to you, your spouse, your children, or your grandchildren.

CHARITABLE REMAINDER TRUST

You can establish a fund in your name or your family's name through several types of remainder trusts tailored to meet your estate planning goals and the needs of your beneficiaries. You set aside an asset for JEF while continuing to receive income from it during your lifetime. The income may continue for the life of additional beneficiaries, such as your spouse or children. Upon termination of the trust, the remaining principal reverts to JEF.

SUPPORTING FOUNDATION

You can establish a supporting foundation affiliated with JEF in your name or your family's name. Your foundation will be managed by a separate board of directors that will guide its investment policies and review which charities to support. There can be major tax incentives for existing private foundations to become supporting foundations.

LIFE INSURANCE POLICY

You can donate a new or a previously existing life insurance policy to JEF. Life insurance donations can increase income tax deductions while decreasing your taxable estate. You receive an income tax deduction at the time of your gift. If you continue to pay permanent premiums on that policy, each payment constitutes a charitable contribution at that time.

RETIREMENT FUND

Did you know that any funds remaining in an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) or other type of retirement plan may be taxed up to 80% after your death and/or your spouse's? The taxes due on your IRA can be avoided by naming JEF as the beneficiary of your retirement plan. (The company holding your plan can provide you with a Beneficiary Designation Form.) Other less taxed assets can be left to your heirs and your Jewish community receives a significant contribution in your name.

B'NAI MAIMONIDES FUND

Young people can become philanthropists through the B'nai Maimonides program. A bar or bat mitzvah makes a tax-deductible minimum cash gift of $250 to JEF which is matched by $250. The child can begin making small distributions from his or her fund immediately and there is no fee to administer the fund.

YOUNG PHILANTHROPIST FUND

This program allows family or friends to open a fund for a minor child with a tax-deductible gift of as little as $500. Unlike regular donor advised funds, which cannot begin making distributions until the fund reaches $10,000, JEF allows a child to start his charitable contributions from the fund's income immediately. There is no fee to administer the fund.

Carol B. Wise

Philanthropy is an intrinsic part of my life. Giving of wealth is important, but personal involvement is an equally important ingredient... I hope this philosophy will influence my family and my friends to fully participate in a way of life that brings me so much joy and satisfaction.

GOLDRING JEWISH SUMMER CAMP EXPERIENCE INCENTIVE GRANT

In 2015 the Goldring Jewish Summer Camp Experience awarded incentive grants to 87 children to attend Jewish not-for-profit sleepaway camps for the first time. This wonderful program, established by JEF in 1999, has been funded by the Goldring Family Foundation since 2001. Since its inception, 1,226 children have benefitted from this program. Children from Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, and the Florida Panhandle currently in grades 1 through 9 who will be attending a Jewish not-for-profit sleepaway camp for the first time are eligible for the program, which provides tuition up to $1,000 per child as an incentive for families to give their children the experience of Jewish summer camp. Experts say that attending a Jewish sleepaway camp is one of the most important factors in determining a child's inclination to understand and maintain his or her Jewish heritage. JEF is proud to play a role in this significant program.

Dear Goldring Family Foundation and Jewish Endowment Foundation of Louisiana

I had such a wonderful time at Jacobs Camp!!!
 At my school we are the only Jewish kids and when I came to camp it
 was like my school but
 they were all Jewish.
 Sometimes at school my class has a Christmas party and not a Hanukkah party. So sometimes it's hard because there are no Jewish kids around and my school does not know what Hanukkah is
 I met so many new friends
 and had a great time and can't wait to come back
 next year!!!!!!!

“Train up the children in the way they should go and even when they are old, they will not depart from it.”

Proverbs 22:6

We have made every effort to accurately recognize all of our donors. We sincerely apologize if your name was listed incorrectly or inadvertently omitted from this publication. Please contact the JEF office for corrections and additions.

This report is underwritten in part by Carr, Riggs & Ingram.

WE REMEMBER THEM...

Several of our cherished JEF donors have passed away since our last Annual Report. They have been a part of JEF and have remembered JEF and our Jewish community during their lifetimes and/or at the end of their lifetimes. They have helped to secure a Jewish future for generations to follow. We honor and thank these donors and their families for making a difference and creating their Jewish legacies.

CREATE A JEWISH LEGACY

The Jewish Endowment Foundation of Louisiana:

Preserves the past, supports the present, and secures the future of our Jewish community

Since 1967, the Jewish Endowment Foundation has served as a repository of funds for planned giving, sustaining our Jewish community by assisting in emergencies and encouraging new projects and initiatives. JEF has an outstanding reputation for responsible investing and is trusted to steward charitable funds for many of our Jewish organizations and individuals. JEF's General Fund plays a vital role in our Jewish community by contributing to the important programs and Jewish agencies in our community.

CREATE A JEWISH LEGACY PROGRAM: THE BASICS

With an eye on the future, JEF and its partners (see below) started Create A Jewish Legacy in 2009. The program concentrates on safeguarding our beloved Jewish community by working with donors to create endowment funds, which are invested and grow in perpetuity. One way to create a Jewish legacy is for a donor to make a gift to JEF in his or her will. The donor identifies which specific agencies, synagogues, charities, or charitable causes he or she would like to benefit. Another simple way to give is for a donor to designate JEF as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy or retirement plan.

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

Since 2009, when Create A Jewish Legacy was launched, many legacy commitments have been created. Almost $20 million in future gifts have been promised for the Jewish community through the Create A Jewish Legacy program.

JEF and its partners in Create A Jewish Legacy sincerely hope that every Jewish person in the Greater New Orleans area will take the time to make plans now to be a part of Create A Jewish Legacy. Sandy Levy (504-524-4559 / sandy@jefno.org or Patti Lengsfeld (504-524-4559 / patti@jefno.org) at JEF will be happy to talk confidentially with donors about giving options. Donors should also consult with their attorneys and/or other professional advisors about their philanthropic plans that will help ensure the future of our Jewish community. The future lies in your hands.
