DEAR FRIENDS,

As a lasting and compassionate partner in philanthropy, the Jewish Endowment Foundation of Louisiana (JEF) invests in our Jewish community—for today and tomorrow. As is written in the Talmud, As our ancestors planted for us, so do we plant for future generations. We are currently in the unique position of being able to both enjoy the shade from those who planted trees before us and, at the same time, plant seeds from which future generations will benefit. We welcome everyone who aspires to build upon the contributions of the past and present to shape our community's shared future.

After several years of continuous growth, JEF's most recent fiscal year ended with mixed results. While unfavorable market conditions led, in part, to lower total assets, we were once again encouraged by the incredible generosity of our fundholders. Although we shared the details of Dorlene Alaynick's posthumous gift in last year's report, it deserves another mention as we received more than $6 million from her estate in 2022. With assets under management totaling $92 million at year-end, what is clear is that the Greater New Orleans Jewish community's generous culture of philanthropy continues to make this a special place.

Despite the downturn, JEF distributed more than $7 million in grants from our donor advised, designated, and custodial funds, as well as supporting foundations. Our unrestricted grants supported Jews in need from Ukraine to Florida to Colorado; sponsored Holocaust programs to commemorate the past and camp programs to uplift the future; and continued funding the local Jewish institutions that sustain our community.

While JEF has always been committed to collaborative relationships with the individuals and organizations that are the heartbeat of our community, this year we embarked on a $5 million campaign to create and build permanent endowments for the Jewish Federation of Greater New Orleans (JFGNO) and its constituent agencies: Jewish Community Center (JCC), Jewish Community Day School (JCDS), Jewish Family Service (JFS), and Tulane Hillel. The Today, Tomorrow, Together: United for Our Future campaign offers donors a chance to build a strong and thriving future for all! We are so proud of this initiative that unites our community for one common goal.

Thank you to those who have long supported and partnered with JEF. You have helped us achieve our mission to ensure a secure future and an enduring legacy by serving as an essential resource for Jewish and non-Jewish philanthropy. We are extremely proud of every person, agency, institution, program, and event that brings us together, so that our community can continue to thrive, no matter the challenges that lie ahead of us. We welcome you to celebrate the philanthropy that unites us as a community.

OUR AGENCY ENDOWMENT CAMPAIGN

TODAY, TOMORROW, TOGETHER:
UNITED FOR OUR FUTURE

JEF is living up to our mission and laying the groundwork for success—forever—for the entire Greater New Orleans Jewish community. We know that the majority of funds raised annually for the immediate needs of agencies and synagogues are applied to the here and now—the present. But the present soon becomes the future. We also know that creating true endowment funds will help to ensure permanent financial resources for our local Jewish community organizations, increasing their ability to thrive not only today, but for generations to come.

In 2022, we silently launched Today, Tomorrow, Together: United for Our Future, a $5 million community-wide, endowment-building campaign to benefit the Jewish Federation of Greater New Orleans and its constituent agencies: Jewish Community Center, Jewish Community Day School, Jewish Family Service, and Tulane Hillel.

With the backing of three very generous, anonymous donors who truly believe in JEF’s mission, we are offering a 2:1 match—for every $2 you give, JEF will match $1—to inspire our donors to give generously to support the long-term future of the organizations you love. These donors have promised to match all gifts until we reach our goal!

We are so thankful for our community members who continue to entrust JEF with their charitable dollars. Please help us max out the match for our campaign and continue the steady growth of these endowments that will exist in perpetuity.

SPENDING

Lis and Hugo Kahn

For Lis and Hugo Kahn, investing in our community has been an obvious way of life. Though neither are native New Orleanians, they quickly became integral members of our local Jewish community. Between them, Lis and Hugo have served as lay leaders with many organizations—each taking a turn as president of JCDS and Shir Chadash Conservative Congregation, as well as chair of JFGNO’s annual campaign.

Together, their more than 30-year philanthropic journey has helped define the type of world they would like to live in, and what they desire for the next generations. Lis and Hugo know they can immediately recommend grants for pressing issues from their donor advised fund at JEF. Through their estate planning, they have channeled their ongoing commitment to their favorite organizations by establishing three designated funds to benefit JCDS, JFGNO, and Shir Chadash. While they cannot imagine what unmet needs there will be years from now, these funds are a seamless and strategic way to distribute their charitable dollars long after their lifetimes.

The couple continues to set the highest standards of philanthropy for their family and all those around them. Lis and Hugo have spent a lifetime committed to improving the community; their legacy gift will benefit the community for years to come.

Dashka Roth and Larry Lehmann

Dashka Roth and Larry Lehmann project a sense of joy and enthusiasm for helping others. For them, tzedakah is woven into their DNA. Their drive is a simple yet profound love and commitment for the work of the agencies in our Jewish community that have unconditionally welcomed and sustained so many families throughout the years. Dashka and Larry set a stellar example for generations to come through their heartfelt appreciation and dedication to our community. Whether giving their time or financial resources, the couple is committed to tikkun olam. Dashka, a noted jewelry designer, has been actively involved with JCDS since its early years as a board member and even serving as its president. A leading estate planning attorney, Larry is a past president of JEF, Tulane Hillel, and Jewish Children’s Regional Service and has served on other boards too numerous to list.

Dashka and Larry were thrilled to learn that JEF’s Agency Endowment Campaign created endowment funds for JFGNO and its four constituent agencies, making their legacy giving easier. By donating a life insurance policy with a significant cash value, they took advantage of the match that increased their total gift by fifty percent, and even benefited from a tax deduction. They know that for generations to come this gift will continue to support the Jewish institutions that are so important to Jewish life.

Giving through their funds has been a wonderful way for Sarah and Joe to connect to the community and make a difference.

SARAH AND JOE LUSTIG

Sarah and Joe Lustig learned about philanthropy at an early age through their parents, Bonnie and Arthur. In addition to their family tzedakah box, they also contributed weekly to their religious school classes’ giving circles. As Joe approached bar mitzvah age, Bonnie and Arthur decided to celebrate the event by establishing a youth philanthropy fund at JEF—before the B’nai Maimonides program even existed. Sarah followed the same path and, with the initial funds gifted by their Zaydee, both also contributed a portion of their bar and bat mitzvah gifts.

Beyond the services and parties, Sarah and Joe’s funds defined an important rite of passage and formal introduction to Jewish philanthropy. Every year on their shared bar/bat mitzvah anniversary, the siblings discussed their grantmaking and causes they were passionate about. As teenagers, Sarah and Joe were lucky enough to see firsthand the impact of some of their charitable giving when visiting Sderot, Israel (less than one mile from Gaza), where the Jewish National Fund built a secure indoor playground and community center, creating some normalcy for children living under threat of attack.

Giving through their funds has been a wonderful way for Sarah and Joe to connect to the community and make a difference. Having recently transitioned their youth funds into true donor advised funds at JEF, both intend to use this next step in their philanthropic journeys to revisit their giving practices, doing their part to help improve the Jewish community and the world.

Goldring Jewish Summer Camp Experience

RoseMary and Saul Brooks Fund for Jewish Youth Engagement

Jewish summer camps are where kids and teens have fun, make new friends, and immerse themselves in Jewish life. The impact of Jewish camp is immediate—campers return home connected to a community and friends that will last them a lifetime. Whether they are first-time campers funded through the Goldring Jewish Summer Camp Experience or campers from small Louisiana communities supported by the RoseMary and Saul Brooks Fund for Jewish Youth Engagement, these families understand that today's campers can become tomorrow's Jewish leaders.

Children taking advantage of these two incentive programs may choose the experience that best fits their needs at a camp that highlights nature, the arts, sports, or a multicultural experience—as long as it is a Jewish nonprofit sleepaway camp.

Last summer, 99 campers attended 10 Jewish sleepaway camps for their very first time with the help of the Goldring grant. The Brooks incentive grant helped six campers attend two camps.

JEF is proud to administer these grants year after year, inspiring new campers to fall in love with Jewish sleepaway camp.

Goldring family foundation,

thank you so much for helping me to go to HST. I had the best time.
these are some of my

YEAR-END REVIEW

As we continue to navigate through a post-pandemic world, as well as a critical nationwide dialogue on ending systemic racism and antisemitism, we are gratefully aware that any progress we make in our mission—now and in the future—will only be furthered by our dedicated donors.

Fueled by your generosity, our community answered calls for aid across the world. When Hurricanes Ida and Ian hit, a range of critical needs arose that threatened the health and well-being of thousands of individuals, especially those most vulnerable. When Russia brutally invaded Ukraine, threatening the lives of 200,000 Jews, your generous donations to JFNA's Ukraine Crisis Relief Fund enabled its partners on the ground to provide urgent relocation and relief services, including aliyah to Israel, for thousands of individuals.

Together, we helped to create opportunities for conversations among our youth about hatred and racism through Loyola University New Orleans' In the Classroom with Anne Frank program.

IT IS YOUR SUPPORT THAT UNITES OUR COMMUNITY.

We remembered the Holocaust, bringing people of all faiths and backgrounds together to celebrate the victory of the human spirit over evil and hatred, through funding to the National WWII Museum and Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra for the moving Violins of Hope exhibit and concerts.

Because of you, JEF is able to continue funding the local Jewish agencies and institutions that unite our community with grants from our General Fund and Unrestricted Board Designated Funds. Thanks to you, we know our “rainy-day” fund will keep us healthy and safe in both good and difficult times, just as it always has.

Fifty-six years ago, early leaders first organized the Community Endowment Foundation of the Jewish Welfare Federation of New Orleans, hoping it would be a lifeline for our Jewish community. They believed that our small and mighty community had the vision and the confidence to build a reliable pool of endowment funds that would one day help ensure our community's financial strength—and vibrancy—for generations to come. Today and tomorrow, JEF is as important to the welfare of our community as it ever was.

LEAVE YOUR LEGACY

LEAVING YOUR CHARITABLE LEGACY:

- 1Creates a permanent resource to meet the challenges and needs of our Jewish community.
- 2Honors or remembers people who are important to you.
- 3Allows successive generations to continue family giving traditions.

We are here to help you leave a lasting legacy (a gift after your lifetime) for the New Orleans Jewish community and the causes you are passionate about. By collaborating with JEF and your estate planning professionals, you can maximize your assets to support the causes most important to you for years to come.

A bequest is the easiest and most common option and costs you nothing today. Donor advised funds, IRA designations, and life insurance are some of the other effective vehicles you may use now to make a difference in the community’s future. By including JEF’s General Fund in your will, you are contributing directly toward ensuring a secure future for the Jewish community.

Contact Bobby Garon (bobby@jefno.org) or Debbie Berins (debbie@jefno.org) at (504) 524-4559 to have a confidential conversation about your philanthropic goals.

Cahn-Tolmas Donor Advised Fund Incentive Program

The Cahn-Tolmas Donor Advised Fund Incentive Program was established in 2016. With new donors providing a minimum of $4,000, JEF contributes $1,000 to establish a donor advised fund. By creating a more attainable entry point, this initiative has encouraged many potential donors to open funds.

During the past seven years ending December 31, 2022, 56 have made grant recommendations from their funds | 34 have added funds since their initial contribution | 17 have added funds multiple times

THE CAHN-TOLMAS DONOR ADVISED FUND INCENTIVE PROGRAM HAS MADE THE FOLLOWING IMPACT:

$3,695,490
